Kategize Medical

Kategize Medical transforms medical learning into a fast-paced, competitive, and highly engaging experience. Designed for nurses, nursing students, doctors, EMTs, paramedics, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and other healthcare professionals, the game combines education with exciting gameplay to help players strengthen knowledge, recall skills, and clinical thinking.

Unlike traditional study methods, Kategize Medical creates an interactive environment where players compete to navigate medical scenarios, answer questions, and think under pressure — similar to real-world healthcare situations. With thousands of medical questions and repeated-play learning opportunities, the game encourages active recall, teamwork, critical thinking, and rapid decision-making.

Whether used in classrooms, study groups, training programs, or at home, Kategize Medical turns studying into an experience players actually enjoy.

Bringing People Together Through Strategy, Laughter, and Memorable Gameplay

At Kategize Games, we believe the best games do more than entertain — they create unforgettable moments. Our mission is to design original, exciting, and engaging games that families, friends, students, and competitive players can enjoy together for years to come.

Founded by Alfred Ricks Jr., Kategize Games combines creativity, strategy, education, and fun into unique gaming experiences unlike anything else on the market. From fast-paced party games to skill-based educational games, our products are designed to challenge the mind, encourage interaction, and keep players coming back for “just one more round.”

What Makes Kategize Games Different?

Original Game Concepts - Every Kategize game is uniquely created with innovative mechanics and replay value in mind. We focus on games that are easy to learn, exciting to master, and enjoyable for players of many ages and backgrounds.

Games That Bring People Together - Whether it’s family game night, classroom learning, parties, team-building events, or competitive tournaments, Kategize Games are designed to create shared experiences and memorable conversations.

Strategy + Fun - Our games combine entertainment with thinking, problem-solving, memory, speed, and creativity. Players stay engaged because every game offers a different experience each time it is played.

Educational Entertainment - Some Kategize products are designed to help players strengthen knowledge and recall skills while still having fun. This includes our growing line of educational and medical-themed games.

Our Vision - Kategize Games continues to expand with new original games, educational products, collectibles, and interactive entertainment experiences. Our goal is simple:

Create games people remember - Games that make people laugh harder, think faster, compete smarter, and connect more deeply.

Duck Battle

Duck Battle is a fun, energetic, and wildly entertaining game that transforms simple rubber ducks into the center of fast-paced competition and laughter-filled gameplay. Designed for both children and adults, Duck Battle combines quick decision-making, friendly rivalry, and unpredictable action into a game experience everyone can enjoy.

Players compete using colorful rubber ducks while racing to complete objectives, outplay opponents, and create exciting game-changing moments. The easy-to-learn gameplay makes Duck Battle accessible for new players, while the competitive elements keep experienced players fully engaged.

Perfect for parties, family gatherings, classrooms, and game nights, Duck Battle creates nonstop interaction and excitement from beginning to end. The game encourages social play, strategic thinking, and memorable moments that players will talk about long after the game is over.

Stackominoes

Stackominoes is a unique domino-stacking strategy game that takes classic domino gameplay to an entirely new level. Players connect, stack, and strategically overlap dominoes to build multi-level structures while competing to outmaneuver their opponents.

The game combines familiar domino matching with creative spatial thinking, tactical placement, and competitive strategy. Every move can open new opportunities, block opponents, or create powerful stacking combinations that change the direction of the game instantly.

Unlike traditional domino games played only on a flat surface, Stackominoes introduces vertical gameplay, allowing players to build upward while maintaining proper connections and overlapping matches. This creates an exciting visual experience and a constantly evolving game board.

Kategize Education

Kategize Education combines learning and gameplay to create an exciting educational experience focused on math, science, spelling, vocabulary, and critical thinking skills. Designed to make learning more interactive and enjoyable, these games help students strengthen knowledge while staying fully engaged through competition, strategy, and hands-on play.

Unlike traditional drills or worksheets, Kategize Education encourages active participation and repeated learning through exciting gameplay mechanics that motivate players to think quickly, solve problems, and improve recall naturally. Students often learn while having so much fun they forget they are studying.

Perfect for classrooms, homeschool environments, tutoring programs, study groups, and family learning activities, Kategize Education supports both individual growth and group interaction.

POTL

Strategy, Competition, and Fast-Paced Fun

POTL is an exciting and highly interactive strategy game that combines the simplicity of card play with the challenge of tactical decision-making. Designed for players of different ages and skill levels, POTL creates nonstop action, unpredictable twists, and competitive fun that keeps everyone engaged from start to finish.

Players race to build winning stacks by matching colors, sequencing numbers, and strategically placing cards onto the game board. Every turn presents new opportunities to outsmart opponents, block their progress, and complete stacks before they do. Special cards add surprises and changing strategies that make every game feel different.
